THE NEW POSTAL CARDS.

stock of Drugs, Patent Med-

Is now making large additions to his stock, and offers icines, Paints, Notions, Blank inducements to the Trade,

RIVE and SUMMER

Books and Stationery, and is prepared to sell low at retail or wholesale.

W. D. MERIWETHER, Jr. TURNLEY, ELY & CO.

-AND-

General Commission Merchants.

We have secured the services of Mr. T. D. Leonard, the well-known auctioner, who will sell all of our Tobacco for us.

We have erected a shed in New Providence, opposite the store of Messrs. McDaniel & Barbee, where we will receive tobacco and dray it to our warehouse free of charge or those persons who do not wish to hauf the Clarksville. Messrs. McDaniel & Barbee will receive weigh and receipt for To-

Quarles, Daniel & Quarles,

Attorneys at Law, CLARKSVILLE, - - TENN

LURTON & TYLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

JAMES W. RICE, ATTORNEY AT LAW. CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

BARKER & COURTS

WHOLESALE GROCERS

RICH'D ANDERSON. E. S. BRINGHURST ANDERSON & BRINGHURST, DEALERS IN

Dec. 23, 1871-19 National Hotel,

This house is complete in all its appointments, and the table supplied with the best the market affords, at reasonable rates.

Jan. 29 '69-4f

JOHN MANNING

game of the season, served upin European style on ten minutes notice, and as the canvass for the Presidency has now fairly opened, he keeps constantly on hand the choicest Wines, Liquors, pure imported Havanna Cigars and Cincinnati Lager Beer, to nerve all candidates on to victory. Restaurant and Saloon open night and day, where the most fastidions may be more than pleased.

Feb. 8, 1873-6m

Chas. Lehman.

Roths' Old Saloon Having purchased the popular liard Hall. the establishment newly painted and re-fitted, and is now open to the public, where all are invited to enjoy the best of Wines, Liquors, Cigars, and other refre-hments. Everything kep

S. OPPENHEIMER. DEALER IN Hides, Furs, Wool, Ginseng, and all kinds of Metal.

Public Square, CLARKSVILLE

W. B. CROSS. R. J. GOOSTREE

CROSS & CO

(Successors to Geo. G. Willis & Co.,) PROPRIETORS OF

SAW MILL.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.,

Prompt attention given to orders from a distance, at the lowest Cash Prices and satisfaction guaranteed. Feb. 1, '73-3m

The finest selection of im- BLUE GRASS SEED. ported Colognes, Handkerchief Extracts, Hair Oils, with all other goods to make a complete Toilet Soaps, Combs and Brushes of all kinds for sale by OWEN & MOORE.

BYERS keeps a complete J. J. GRUSMAN

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

in kegs, half barrels and barrels.

ORLEANS MOLASSES.

Crushed, Powdered and Granulated

SUGAR

New Orleans, Clarified and Brown

SUGAR

NEW CAROLINA RICE.

FLINTHOMINY

CRITS

MAGGARONI.

TAPICCA.

OYSTERS.

PICKLES.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

GELATINE.

DRIED BEEF.

TONGUES

PEACHES.

BLACKBERRIES

TOMATOES.

CORN

COLMAN'S MUSTARD.

PURE CREAM TARTAR.

PURE BI-CARB. SODA. Pure Spices, of all kinds

Horsford's Bread Preparation,

PURE CATAWBA WINE | Send in your orders for Job

Pure Cider Vinegar.

Old Sour Mash Whisky.

Old Peach and Apple Brandy. Old French Brandy.

300 Bus. Clover Seed.

TIMOTHY SEED.

Orchard and Herds Grass Seeds.

J. J. CRUSMAN,

NEBLETT & GRANT, Proprietors Chronicle,

Address

Send for specimen copy of the paper.

WHITE PURE

Sixth Division of the Chancery Court.

The Chancery Court for this, the Sixth Division, Hon. C. G. SMITH, presiding, is eld at the following times and places: HARTSVILLE, Trousdale county, 1st Mondays of February and August.

CLARKSVILLE, Montgomery county, 4th
Mondays of April and 1st Mondays of November.
GALLATIN, Sumner county, 1st Monday of June and 4th Monday of December.
LERANON, Wilson county, 2nd Monday of April and 2nd Monday of October.
Springfield, Robertson county, 4th
Monday March and 3rd Monday in Septem-

DOVER, Stewart county, 2nd Monday in February and 4th Monday in October. ASHLAND CITY, Cheatham county, 3rd Monday in January and 2nd Monday in August. ARLINGTON, Houston county, 4th Mon day in February and 4th Monday in August

Tenth Judicial Circuit. The Circuit Court of this, the 10th Judiini Circuit, Hon. J. E. Ricz presiding, are seld at the following times and places: held at the following times and places:

CLARKSVILLE, Montgomery county, on Isi Mondays in January, May and September. C. D. Bailey, clerk.

Springfield, Robertson county, the 1st
Mondays in February, June and October.—
John Y. Hutchings, clerk.

ASHLAND CITY, Cheatham county, the 3rd Mondays in February, June and October. W. B. Nichols, clerk.

CHARLOTTE, Dickson county, the 3rd
Mondays in March, July and November.—
J. A. Dodson, clerk.

WAVERLY, Humphreys county, the 4th
Mondays in March, July and November.
H. M. Little, clerk.

Dover, Stewart county, 2nd Mondays in April, August and December. W. J. Hagler, clerk.

Montgomery County Criminal Court will be held on 4th Mondays of January and April, and 2nd Monday of November, by Judge T. W. King; F. O. Anderson, At-torney General. V. L. WILLIAMS.

Would call your attention to his new spring Stock of Boots & Shees, just in store. The assortmentin every grade is very complete. Also new styles in Ties, Collars. Cravats, Scarfs, and Gents' Underwear, All goods sold at the very lowest cash prices .--Please call and examine them at

Street. SINGER SEWING MACHIN

No. 23 Franklin

FRANKLIN ST., CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEI WILL. M. LONG, Ag't.

W. M. POLLOCK SAM'L JOHNSON

GENERAL INSURANCE

REAL ESTATE AGENTS,

CORNER FRANKLIN AND FIRST STS.,

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

OLD AND RELIABLE

We are supplied with a large and a small power press and are prepared to print

Be not deceived and misled. The best is the cheapest. If you wish to insure your life, choose a company of age, experience and ability, and you will select the "Old Rellable" New York Life.

Will give our attention to the buying, selling and renting of real estate,

March 15, "13-tf."

RAWLS & RAMEY

CROCERIES

COUNTRY PRODUCE

PURE LIQUORS,

FRANKLIN STREET. THIRD DOOR EAST FROM FIRST ST.,

The Best Grade of

ROBERTSON COUNTY WHISKEY!

In large quantities, at the lowest rates,

N. O. Sugar and Molasses

The pale states gill looked a fact brightyoung sister a moment in haugty amazement, but reading truly the love and pity in the fair face, answered:

"I had rather not meet him, Mattie."

"But why?" persisted her sister.

"He is Charlie's cousin, and I know here. N. O. Sugar and Molasses GOLDEN SYRUP,

RAWLS & RAMEY.

and urge me to marry him at once. I loved him, Mattie, but I did not give THE NEW CHURCH ORGAN. BY WILL, M. CARLETON.

They've got a bran new organ, Sue,
For all their fuss and search;
They've done just as they said they'd de,
And fetched it into church,
They're bound the critter shall be seen,
And on the preacher's right
They've hoisted up their new machine,
In . verybody's sight.
They've got a chorister and choir,
Ag'n wy voice and voic;
For if was never my desire,
To praise the Lord by note.

I've been a sister good an' true
For five an' thirty year;
I've done what seemed my part to do,
An' prayed my duty clear;
I've sung the hymus both low and quick,
Just as the preacher read,
An' twice when Deacon Tubbs was sick,
I took the fork and led!
An' now, their bold, any fangled ways
Is comin' all about;
And I right in my latter days,
Am fairly crowded out.

To-day the preacher, good old dear,
With tears all in his eyes,
Read—"I can read my title clear
To mansions in the kkies"—
I al'ays liked that blessed hymn—
I s'pose I al'ays will;
It somehow gratifies my whim,
In good old Ortonville;
But when that choir got up to sing,
I coulda't catch a word;
They sung the most dog-gondest thing
A body ever heard!

Some worldly chaps was standin' near,
An'when I seed them grin,
I bid farewell to every fear,
An' boldly waded in,
I thought I'd chase their tune along,
An' tried with all my might;
But though my voice is good an' strong,
I couldn't steer it right;
When they was high, then I was low,
An'also contrawise;
And I too fast, or they too slow,
To "mansions in the skies." An'after every verse, you know,
They played a little tune;
I didn't understand, an'so
I started in too soon,
I pitched it pr'tty middlin' high,
I fetched a lus y tone,
But oh, alas! I found that I
Was singin' there alone!
They laughed a little I am told:
But I had done my best;
And not a wave of trouble rolled
Across my peaceful breast.

And Sister brown- I could but look—
She sits right front of me;
She never was no singin' book,
An' never went to be;
But then she al'ays tried to do
The best she could, she said;
She understood the time, right throug
An' kep' it with her head;
But when she tried this mornin', oh,
I had to laugh or cough!
It kep' her head a bobbin' so,
It c'en a'most came off!

An' Deacon Tubbs—he all broke down,
As one might well suppose;
He took one took at Sister Brown,
An' meekly scratched his nose,
He looked his hymn right thro' an' thro
And laid it on the seat,
An'then a pensive sigh he drew,
An' looked completely beat,
An' when they took another bout,
He didn'teven rise,
But drawed his red bandanner out,
An' wiped hisweepin' eyes.

I've been a sister good an' true,
For five and thirty year;
I've done what seemed my part to do,
An' prayed my duty clear;
But death will stop my voice, I know.
For he is on my track;
An' some day I to church will go,
An' never more come back;
An' when the folks get up to sing—
Whene'er that time shall be—
I do not want no patent thing
A squealin over me!

AFTER LONG YEARS.

world!"

Mattie Caldwell spoke as if it was as irritating as it was absurd, this contretemps she was apostrophizing. It was so noble a thing to see Mattie in even an imitation of a fit of temper, that Charlie Caldwell, her equally that Charlie Caldwell, her equally even-temperd husband, put down his newspaper to gaze at her in sheer

What is the matter?' "Edith. She won't go to Newport with us, and, and declares her intention of going down to the Hill farm for the summer.

"The Hill farm! Why I thought-" "Of course you did," broke in his impulsive little wife; "you thought she and I had suffered sufficient tyranny and unkindness at the Hill farm to make us hate the very name, much less the sight of it. I do.

"And Edith wants to go back again?" Not to stay, Charlie; only for a few weeks. Charlie"-and here Mattie drew over her pretty face a mask of solemn mystery in expression " I believe in my heart it is because Douglas is coming home.

"Do you? I never could understand why he went away so suddenly.
So you think it was Edith?"
"I'll tell you all I know about it." I'll tell you all I know about it," said Mattie, perching herself on her husband's kuee. "Before you came to the Hill farm, Douglas had been at Seaton for a summer. "I know that. He sent me there."

"He met Edith at some village gathering, and certainly was pleased with her. You know it was not very easy to court anybody at Hill farm." "I should say not," said Charlie with a wry face. Uncle James seemed to consider it his duty to Edith and me, after poor mama died, to keep us hard at work, and certainly to allow no male visitors.

"How many times did he set the dogs on me?" | he treated Douglas after the same fashion. Still, Edith sometimes saw him, and certainly received-letters from him. One morning she came to my room with large and a small power press and are prepared to print anything from the smallest card to a mammoth poster,

We are supplied with a large and a small power press and are prepared to print anything from the smallest card to a mammoth poster,

WITH SECURITY.

In o new-fangled, untried, or experimental company, but one time tried and tested and ever found worthy. Undoubted in the last happy face I ever saw her wear, and asked me if I could endure the hard life a little while—and then she would send for me to join her in her new home. She would say no more; but the next day, with a white set for the last happy face I ever saw her wear, and asked me if I could endure the hard life a little while—and then she would send for me to join her in her new home. She would say no more; but the next day, with a white set face she told me to forget her fool-ish words, and later I knew that Douglas Fisher had suddenly left Seaton. "He came to me, Mattie, and told me of the farm and of Edith. Cer-tainly he loved her, but I inferred from his half confidence that his affection was not returned. He spoke of some sudden change in her, and the next news I heard he was preparing to go to Europe. He had written to me from Seaton, and the next summer I too visited the little village. I confess to you I wondered how Edith's cold. impassive beauty could attract so sunny a nature as Douglas had, especially with her pretty saucy sister near it."

"But, Charlie, she was not cold and mpassive then. There was not a brighter, livelier girl in Seaton than Edith, before Pouglas Fisher left her so unaccountably." You think she loved him? "I am sure of it." "And I am sure he loved her. And now, after five years of separation, faced a tall, heavily bearded man, who you think she is running away because my cousin Douglas is coming home?" "I think so; and she has no home paused for a moment, looking search-but this since we were married, of "Edith!" he said, in deep tender tones, "I never saw your letter." She was resting against his breast, Mattie, to try to find out her side as she put it now into his hand, and of the story. I am sure there is some told him how she hand found it. mystery about it, and we may be able > pared for the return of the truants to concourse of dear friends to witness a grand wedding, few suspecting the previous courtship of the handsome couple who were united after long

THE Rochester Democrat is responsible for the following:

they are like brothers, so you see he will be here constantly. Mattie, I could not bear it! I could not meet him here day after day, and know him so false as he has been. Let me him so false as he has been. Let me he raised in his seat and shouted with he raised in his seat and shouted with my heart unsought. One of his favorite pleas was the home we could make for you, little sister, and I was finally won to a consent. Still, it remained to set the time, and form a plan for The beautiful blide grew pale—the opement."

decisive hour had come. She pressed
"Why did you not do as Charlie and her white hands together and the you will. Tell me where to meet you, and I will have a clergyman ready to make you my wife. Trust your life to me, Edith, and you shall never regret it. Mattie, I wrote him a letter "Wait" she answered while a

"Without one word. He had written that the letter I told you of was his last appeal. 'I have urged you so often,' he wrote, 'that if you do not reply favorably to the, I shall at hick warm mist, that the sun seeks a thick warm mist, the sun seeks a thick warm mist. know it is coquetry, not love, that vainly to pierce. Trees, lofty and makes you smile upon me."

"Coquetry!" said Mattie, disdainfully, "As if you ever knew the meaning of the word."

"Probably he repented, Mattie, and thought a poor country girl would not grace his city home. But whatever his motive, he left me, and I confess I shrink from meeting him."

vanily to piece. Trees, they and beautiful, wave to the airy motion of the birds; but there—a group of Indians gather; they flit to and fro, with something like sorrow upon their dark brows. And in their midst lies a mantiful form—but his cheek, how deathly; his eyes, wild with the fifful fire of fever. One friend stands behind him—nay, I should say kneels, for see, he is

ver. One friend stands behind him-nay, I should say kneels, for see, he is pillowing that poor head upon his "Genius in ruins-O! the high, holy looking brow! why should death mark it, and he so young? Look how he throws back the damp curls! see him clasp his hands! hear his thrilling shrieks for life! mark how he clutches at the form of ing and the dying together.

There was a hush in that princely Edith felt her heart beating fast, her beyes filling with tears, as blow after blow fell upon the hollow post, crack-blow fell upon the hollow pos ing, bending till it fell to the ground are their piercing glances; in vain his just as the noonday bell called the hands friend whispers the name of father and sister—death is there. Death—in which a Dr. Jordan administered and no soft hand, no gentle voice to bless and soothe him. His head sinks and after the death of the latter, ran back! One convulsive shudder—he is away with his wife, with whom he had into the hole where it had stood for so many years. In the dark damp earth she saw a folded paper, evidently earthly her look, so inspired her manshaken from the hollow post by the ner, that what she described seemed inot easy for her to find scented paper and tinted envelopes at Hill farm. It was a sheet of coarse paper, folded, sealed and stamped with a thimble-top, directed in a round, girlish hand, to Douglas Fisher; the letter she had written to appoint time and place for and elopement—the letter he had never seen, that her hurry and agitation must have slipped through one of the wide cracks down into the hollow post.

She opened it carefully, her heart pitying even then the simple girl who "Father" she exclaimed, turning sud-denly, while the tears rained down her beautiful cheeks, "father, shall I denk it now?" grow up in ignorance and idleness, so-ciety is taxed for their support, either in her reformatories, her jails, hospit-drink it now?"

The form of the old judge was con-vulsed with agony. He raised not his head, but in a smothered voice he falt-ered: "No no, my child-no?" She lifted the glittering goblet, and let accept the sunny future her lover promised her. Edith was cold, impassive and stately in the days when she shared her sister's home. It was a rare event to see her show emotion in any way, and Charlie had wondered more than once at his cousin's admir-like the cousin's admir-like t turned to the company saying: "Let Francisco for the manufacture of an age of you."

His glistening eyes, his sad, sweet smile was her answer. The judge left the gate. She sprang to her feet, and the room, and when, an hour after, he turned, and with a more subdued manpaused for a moment, looking searchingly into her face—only for a moment, the bridal guests, no one could fail to read that he, too, had determined to banish the enemy at once and forever from his princely home.

> disembarking at Vera Cruz, he thusly addressed his lieutenant, Ben. F. Egan: ding can never forget the impressions so solemnly made. Many from that hour renounced forever the social THE total vote for Governor in Connecticut is 85,914; of which Ingersoll

Those who were present at that wed-

(Democrat), received 45,181; Haven (Republican), 39,336, and Smith (Temperance), 2,397. Ingersoll over all, 3,388. Last year the total vote for Governor was 93,098. Jewell, 46,563; Hubbard, 44,562; Gillette, Temper-ance, 1,549; Harrison, Labor Reform, 399; scattering 23° Jewell over Hub-bard, 2,001; over all, 28. LITTLE ROCK, April 15.—A grave-yard, situated on the banks of the Arkansas, twenty miles below the city, into the river on Sunday. About 700 bodies were washed away in the caved 40.871, including 1,534 officers. During the war there were no less than 1.589 encounters with the enemy which were attended with loss of life.

him so false as he has been. Let me go, dear. I am a woman now, and Uncle James cannot tread me down as he did when we were mere children."

But, Edith, how was he false?"

"You know, darling, how hard our life was; now any change seemed like sunshine; and you know how Douglas tried to win my love. I never went to the village that he did not meet me.

The sharpest, so far as heard from, is the girl who makes her unsuspecting father the daily bearer of missives to a young clerk in his office, who has storm continued during last night and up to noon to-day, but has storm continued during last night and up to noon to-day, but has been appointed to win the governor's cloak, and when strip of country about 200 miles wide and has lasted about three days, and the throws it off, the cierk gets the doctory was the worst ever known.

The sharpest, so far as heard from, is the girl who makes her unsuspecting father the daily bearer of missives to a young clerk in his office, who has storm continued during last night and up to noon to-day, but has been forbidden to visit his employer's been forbidden to visit his employer's country about 200 miles wide and has lasted about three days, and was the worst ever known.

A man by the name of Vaughn has strip of country about 200 miles wide and has lasted about three days, and was the worst ever known.

Does Advertising Pay.

Some of our merchants might learn a useful lesson from a New England man, whose experience is reported by an exchange as follows: "About eighteen years ago Mr. Malley appeared in New Haven, and opened a small seven by nine dry goods store on the principal street of that city. At that time the heaviest merchants of the street scarcely advertised in the local papers to the extent of more than two squares each, in the standing advertisements for the season. Mr. Malley, with a dever dared to evince, struck out boldly in the advertising line, engaging a column in each of the three local dailies, with the privilege of changing the same weekly, and having his advertisements the most readable part of the newspapers. For this he paid each of the newspapers at the rate of $1,000 to $2,000 a year. The old fogy merchants stood aghast at his hardihood, and every body predicted that he would 'go up' in less than that time—to the very height of the mercantile ladder. His store in a few days expedned from a seven by nine room into the occupancy of the whole building in which it was situated, and in less than a year he was doing the largest business of any merchant in the city. He kept up his reckless advertising, as it was called, and to-day he has a store built by himself, 200 feet deep, 70 feet wide on two floors—the largest and most successful stamps are now. A card will answer

"Have a question to put to you."
"Well my good woman, what is it?"
"Ten years ago," she said, "I was left a widow with eight children utterly unprovided for, and nothing to call my own but this Bible. By its direction, and looking to God for strength, I have been enabled to to feed my self and family. I am now tottering to the that's not the question," interposed the woman; "keep to the point, Sir. What has your way of thinking done for you?" The infidel endeavored again to avoid the question; the feelchant. "Wal, 'taint good for nothin' where I live," said the farmer.

"Very well" replied the merchant. "keep it until you get a dollar's worth ing of the meeting gave vent to ap plause, and the infidel had to go away

Some person with a turn for figures paying over the identical seventy-five kinseed, counted twenty-five of them, and passed them over to the merchant. "Why" said the merchant, "what > Pendleton, O., recently gave birth to a male child which is perhaps the smallothers are paying so much attention to fat babies, and "the most beautiful bafat babies, and "the most beautiful ba-bies," (of course there are no ugly ba-bies), this youngster deserves more than passing consideration. The baby is over a week old, and on last Satur-day weighed only fifteen and a half ounces, and is eleven inches in length, actual measurement. He is said to be equal to his regular rations, and gives promise of living and doing well.

The Clarksville, Mo., Sentinel, gives an account of a poisoning case at Spen-cerburg, Pike county, some days ago, Gov. Washburn, of Wisconsin, has Gov. Washburn, of Wisconsin, has put in his annual message a well merted acconite and arsenic to D. M. Kirtley, and after the death of the latter, ran away with his wife, with whom he had for some time held criminal relations. The parties were pursued and overtaken, and a legal examination of Jordan resulted in his commitment for murder.

Boys.—American boys are expected to become manly men. The mother of every boy is expected to teach him to be chedient to parental authority to be chedient to parental authority to the property will deserve the thanks of all good people." for some time held criminal relations. The parties were pursued and over-taken, and a legal examination of Jordan resulted in his commitment for to become manly men. The mother of every boy is expected to teach him to be obedient to parental authority, to leans "women of the town." the dramatic association present it dur-ing the coming canvass for the benefit of our dearly beloved Adelbert?— Vicksburg Herald.

"I had more money than he had to carry on the suit," said a very mean individual who had just won a law-suit over a poor neighbor, "and that's where I had the advantage of him.—
Then I had much better counsel than he, and there I had the advantage of him. him. And his family were sick while the suit was pending, so he couldn't attend to it, and there I had the ad-

THIS is the way the Maysville (Ky:) Bulletin puts it: Corner loafers, store box rangers, and young gentlemen who attend Sabbath-school one day in the week, and play "seven-up" the other six, are now warbling the following:

An exchange says, "sleeping rooms This long-talking individual went to Mexico as a private in the 4th Kentucky volunteers—Cerro Gordo Wilquently, in cases of sickness, a person will find it impossible to obtain rest if liams' famous regiment. Crossing the gulf, the weather was bad, the voyage was rough, and Bill in common with many others, was very sea-sick. When the head is in any other direction, and

· A State Senator in one of the Wes-Kentucky, and see a picture of a ship in a book, I'll be darned if I don't tear excessive legislation: "We have already bit off more than we can show."

often a cure is retarded for a long

THE German government has at PNEUMATIC tubes are being put down length given definite statistics showing length given definite statistics showing the German losses in the war with France. The total number killed, wounded and missing amounts to 137,-297. Of these there were killed in action, 17,572; those who died afterwards from their wounds numbered 10,710; from sickness, 12,253; from accidents, 116; from suicide, 30; the total number who have died being thus 40,871, including 1,534 officers. During the war there were no less than in Paris to take the place of telegrap ic wires, for the transmission of dis-patches within the city, it being prac-ticable to send several dispatches at once by this new method.

THE Board of Exposition Managers have instructed Secretary Campbell to tender the freedom of the Nashville Industrial Exposition, to Commodors Vanderbilt and family during the bee will receive, weigh and receipt for To-hacco delivered at our shed in New Provi-dence. Oct 1 '71 -if. W. A. QUARLES. W. M. DANIEL G. M. QUARLES.

TOBACCO

FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE. CLARKSVILLE, - - TENN. Advances made on Tobacco in Store.

Will practice in the Courts of Montgom ary and adjoining counties. April 27, 1872-11 SMOND B. LURTON. CHAS. W. TYLER.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN. Will practice in the courts of Montgom ry and adjoining counties June 15, 72-11.

Will attend the courts of Montgomery Stewart and Houston counties. Office on Strawberry Alley.

LIQUOR DEALERS Franklin St., Sign of Sugar Hogshead.

COAL, HAY, GRAIN, BRAN, ETC. FRANKLIN STREET. CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN. T. D. SCOTT, - - Proprietor. Burnett's Flavoring Extracts.

Is Always on JOHN MANNING has discovered that the citizens of Clarksville and surrounding country needed a specific in the rarest game of the season, served up in European

Saloon, Restaurant and Bil-Formerly owned by G. A. Roth, has had

I am no candidate for office, but will pay cash for all articles along with them. Sept. 28, 1872-11

And dealers in Lumper of every description Poplar, Gum, Pine, Oak, Walnut, Cedar Fence Posts, Shingles, and Sawed Lathes.

Jan. 4, 773-1f.

-FOR THE-

CLARKSVILLE

A LARGE

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

IT OFFERS EXTRA

INDUCEMENTS.

We are supplied with a

in the best style, at moderate

Send in your advertisements.

$2.00 PER YEAR.

March 22, 1873-1m.

-AND-

(Office Up Stairs)

Fire and Marine Insurance. The best and cheapest Life Insurance in the United States. The

New York Life Ins. Co.,

Be not deceived and misled. The best is the

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN

course she has no place to go excepting to Hill farm.

CLARKSVILLE. - TENNESSEE. added saucily, and ran off.

She was not a very skillful diplomatist, and finding Edith sitting rather forlornly alone, plunged headlong into "Edith, why are you running away from Douglas Fisher?" The pale stately girl looked at her Crushed, Powdered and Granulated Sugar, Frime Rio Coffee, Teas, Factory Cheese, Oysters, Soda, Pepper, Yeast Powder, New Hominy, Carolina Rice and a well assorted stock of other goods.

Blanks of every descrip-Clarksville, Tenn. tion, for sale at this Office.

I did—just walk off to the minister and get married, and then let Uncle James rave as much as he pleased?"

"I don't know. We didn't. You know the old gate post, Mattie, that had the loose top?"

"Yes,"

"Yes, Marion, lay aside your scruples for this once," said the judge, in a low tone, going toward his daughter; "the company averegt it. Do not sari.

"Yes."
"Douglas and I used that for a post-ously infringe upon the rules of etioffice. We would slip the top off a little, and there was a space under it where letters could lie secure from the country of wind or rain, or what was more important, prying eyes. Just at the time I bridal party. Marion's principles had given my promise to Douglas to be his wife, Uncle James was informed convivialist, but of late his friends noof our meetings by some officious ticed the change in his manners, the friend, and kept so strict a watch over difference in his habits; and to-night me that it was impossible for me to go they watched him to see, as they sneer-the village at all. The old gate post ingly said, if he was tied down to a the village at all. The old gate post became our only medium of communication, and Douglas urged me still more earnestly to leave the farm and become his wife. He wrote me one day that he must soon leave Seaton, and begged to write upon a slip the time and place where I would meet him, and the train by which we should leave Seaton after I become his wife. 'Darling,' he wrote me, 'I am rich, and Mattie shall come to us as soon as you will. Tell me where to meet you.

ingly said, if he was tied down to a woman's opinion so soon.

Pouring a brimming cup, they held it with tempting smiles toward Marion. She was very pale, though more composed; and her hand shook not, as smiling back, she gracefully accepted the crystal tempter, and raised it to her lips. But scarcely had she done so when every hand was arrested by her piercing exclamation of "O! how terrible?"

"What is it?" cried one and all.

appointing a time and place of meeting. I went there. He did not come. Three days I went almost hourly to the gate post for some word of explanation. None came; and when I next heard from Seaton, Douglass Fisher had gone away."

Without writing?"

"Without one word. He had were some hideous object.

"Wait," she answered, while a light, which seemed inspired, shone from her darkeyes; "wait, and I will tell you. I see," she added, slowly pointing one jeweled finger at the sparkling ruby liquid, "a sigh that beggars all description; and yet listen—will paint it for you if I can. It is a lovely spot; mountains crowned with shrink from meeting him. "Certainly you do. I will not urge you to do so now, dear; but after we return from Newport, where I suppose Charlie will have Douglas for his guest, you will come home again?"

"We will see, Mattie. Let me go

"I am afraid you will find Hill farm just as horrid as ever." Just as horrid as ever Edith con-cluded it was, after a week's sojourn at the dismal farm she had called her home during girlhood. Her uncle did "It is the most absurd thing in the dignified, stately lady, who came, after only sister—the twin of his soul weep-ing for him in his distant native land.

> In one of these rambles two weeks after her arrival, she came upon a group of men who were repairing the tumble down fences and rickety gates about the place. They were at work upon the old gate-post she had turned into a postoffice, and she stood listlessly watching them as they loosed the lay watching them as they loosed the ward edge of her lashed. Her beautiful arm had lost its tension, and the dying together.
>
> There was a hush in that princely parlor, broken only by what seemed a smothered sob from some manly bosom. The bride stood yet upright, with quivering lip, and tears stealing to the output of the pay of each member amounted to $111.10 per day. Now, it is safe to say that the average number of hours they were in session did not exceed five per day, so that each member received as the pay of each member amounted to $111.10 per day. Now, it is safe to say that the average number of hours they were in session did not exceed five per day. So that each member received it will be seen that the pay of each member amounted to $111.10 per day. Now, it is safe to say that the average number of hours they were in session did not exceed five per day. So that each member amounted to $111.10 per day. Now, it is safe to say that the average number of hours they were in session did not exceed five per day. So that each member amounted to $111.10 per day. Now, it is safe to say that the average of $2.222 per hour, or a little over 37 were required. work from its place. The loose top was gone, and there were wide cracks in the wooden slap under it, where the love letter of five years ago had lain waiting for eager hands and eyes.
>
> "It is evening now; the great white some definition of the same ready cannot be some the some thange of her wision. She spoke again; every lip cents per minute. This same ready calculator tells that a majority of these members could not make one dollar a day at any honest labor.
>
> "It is evening now; the great white

When the curious eyes that might have seen her were safely in doors contemplating meat and vegetables, Edith went close to the old post, and looked | dead recent blows. A strange suffocating actually to have taken place then and feeling held her fast for a moment, then she stooped, reached over and secured bridegroom laid his face in his hands the letter. It was not a dainty missive, and was weeping.
such as she sent to Newport, for it was "Dead!" she repeated again, her not easy for her to find scented paper lips quivering faster and faster, and the civil law, and to acquire an educa-pitying even then the simple girl who opened her whole soul to her lover. The very words were so different from those she would use now. No polished courtesy of address, no polite evasion of the tender questions, but a frank, girlish outpouring of her happy con-sent to leave her hard, bitter life, and ation of her stauesque beauty. But as she read now the secret of

But as she read now the secret of her lover's apparent fickleness, the record of her own young heart, the tears fell fast upon the yellow sheet, and sobs shook her whole form. There was no one to see her, and she knelt down by the fallen gate post, and wept for her own lost youth and broken hopes.

She was still kneeling there, the open letter in her hand, when she heard a footstep turn from the road into the narow lane leading to the farm

His elistening even his sad sweet improved sewing machine needle, call-tempt me to peril my soul for wine. Not firmer are the everlasting hills than my resolve, God, helping me, never to touch or taste the poison cup. And he to whom I have given my hand—who watched over my brother's dying form in that last solemn hour, and buried the dear wanderer by the river, in that land of gold, will I trust, sustain me in that resolve. Will you not, my husband?"

His elistening even his sad sweet the surple needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle with sevention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, call-ed the Suplee needle, a California invention. This needle differs from other sewing machine needle, and the country of the farm of the suplement of the suplemen into the narow lane leading to the farm house. In a moment it would be at

"Mattie told me all," he said, "and "Oh, Charlie, I would give anything to have Edith married as happily as we are. Misery likes company?" she added sancily and ran off. Newport, and the autumn collected a

"One evening last week, at the opera house, as the play was approaching the crisis, a gentleman in one of the or-chestra chairs became so much excited self, 200 feet deep, 70 feet wide on two or in quantities, the same as pos floors—the largest and most successful mercantile establishment in New England, outside of Boston. He now pays the local journals not less than $5,000 a year for advertising, and yet he frankly confesses that he has made all his money out of newspapers."

or in quantities, the same as postage stamps are now. A card will answer all the purposes of paper, envelope and stamp, in case the message contains nothing of a private nature, and the saving of two cents to men and houses sending out hundreds of letters daily will be no small item. It is not averaged that the postal cards will be

How Much They Made.

A Double Dyed Villain.

als, or asylums. How much cheaper it would be to have every boy properly educated, trained and disciplined so that he would be a blessing, instead of a curse to the world. He is sure to

THE old citizens of the mouth of

Well if ever I live to get back to old

Smithland will remember B ll King, once Captain of the Jacob Hunter.—

become one or the other.

following:

An Infidel Silenced.

One day an infidel was lecturing in a village in the north of England, and at the close he challenged discussion. The challenge was accepted by an old, bent woman, in the most ancient attire.

I daily will be no small item. It is not expected that the postal cards will be popular with lovers, or people in whom the organ of secretiveness is unusually large; but with the mass of the people they are sure to become immensely popular.

family. I am now tottering to the grave; but I am perfectly happy, because I look forward to a life of immortality with Jesus in heaven. That's what my religion has done for me. What has your way of thinking done for you?" "Well my good lady," rejoined the lecturer, "I dont want to disturb your comfort; but—" "O! that's not the question." interposed the lecturer, "interposed the grave is a some goods and gave the merchant a five dollar bill, of which he wanted seventy-five cents back. The merchant a five dollar bill, of which he wanted seventy-five cents back. The merchant a five dollar bill, of which he wanted seventy-five cents back. The merchant counted out the amount and handed it over to the farmer. He looked at it a moment and inquired: "What's this?" "It's my eurrency," said the merchant counted out the amount and handed it over to the farmer. He looked at it a moment and inquired: "What's this?" "It's my eurrency," said the merchant counted out the amount and handed it over to the farmer. He looked at it a moment and inquired: "What's this?" "It's my eurrency," said the merchant counted out the amount and handed it over to the farmer. He looked at it a moment and inquired: "What's this?"

The farmer pocketed the change and departed. A few weeks after he went into the same store and bought goods to the amount of one dollar and after furnishes the New York World the cents he took out a handful of pump

Congress met on the second day of December and remained in session until the 4th of March, a period emuration "Wal" says the farmer, "this is my currency, and when you get a dollar's and house work she had shared with Mattie, and rambled about the place, wondering a little how many weeks of weeping; awe-stricken, the dark men over from the 22d of December to the give you a dollar for it." it would suffice to fit her for a lunatic move silently away, and leave the liv- 6th of Japuary, which included twelve working days. Thus the actual num-The wife of a worthy blacksmith in

Beast Butler has been dramatized in Georgia. The play is entitled "The Tyrant," and shows up the villainies and brutality of Butler, the fate of Mumford, the theft of cotton and spoons, and the infamous order No. 28, which declared the ladies of New Or-

THE manufacture of sewing machine

I love the gentle spring time,
When all the girls are out,
And like so many butterfiles
Are fluttering about;
I like to stand where crossings are
Not altogether dry,
And watch their pretty ankles
As they go sweeping by.

ready bit off more than we can chew. He was forcible, if not absolutely elo quent.

month of May. The woman who never watched her neighbors, is said to be consin to the woman who did not know how many dresses her sister-in-law had.